

Nostalgia [no-stal-juh]

(New York City Circa 1860)

Etymology: from Greek nostos ‘return home’ + algos ‘pain’

A sentimental longing or wistful affection for the past, typically for a period or place with happy personal associations.

Old New York has a way of eliciting a pervasive sense of nostalgia. This sentimental yearning calls to mind the qualities and principals of the men and women who built this city.

Character, Integrity, Hard Work, Determination, Perseverance, Accountability, Tradition, Innovation, Courage and Hope; They are at the foundation of each and every one of us.

These are the tenets that in larger part form a doctrine that spans the gulf of time.

They are the building blocks of old New York and an integral part of our ever growing Metropolis. They make us nostalgic.

They give us the sense of longing affection for things past which reminds us of simpler times' "The good ol' days"

They bring us to a place of happy personal affection and give us a sense of individual pride. We romanticize about it; We long for it.

Citadel Property Management Corp. is grounded by the principals of Old New York. We stand firm in our resolve to preserve the foundations of our city and protect our clientele.
